YES TO SEX? YES MEANS TEST!

For young people, getting an STD, like chlamydia, is common. So shouldn't STD testing be a part of any checkup? Anyone saying YES to sex should also say YES to TEST, and talk with a healthcare provider about which screenings are right for them.

Half of all new STD cases in the U.S. are in people between ages 15-24...

but fewer than 12% of young people say they've been tested in the past year.

Let's change these stats.
